

Week Twenty-Seven Dynamic Interaction, Historiography

- Religion
 - Greek Gods
 - Greek Mythology
- Philosophy
 - Aristotle
- Historiography and Analysis
 - Read Ch. 2 of Burrow's A History of Histories. Provide a written response including biographical information, main points, and interesting quotations.
- Dynamic Interaction
 - Investigate Aristotle online. Note material of interest.

Week Twenty-Seven: Literature: Thucydides

- Literature Work Template: The Peloponnesian War by Thucydides.
 - Complete Context and Authorship summaries of this translated work.
 - Begin reading the work. The recommended edition of this work is called On Justice, Power, and Human Nature: The Essence of Thucydides' History of the Peloponnesian War.

Scholarship

- Read annotations and introductory material provided in your edition of the work.
- Note points of interest.

Literary Analysis

- Review previous vocabulary terms.

© 2014

© 2014

Week Twenty-Eight Historical Landscape: Alexander the Great

- Historical Landscape
 - The Empire of Alexander the Great
 - Hellenistic Civilization
- Historical Figures
 - Alexander the Great
- Civilization and Culture
 - Macedonia
 - The Extent of Alexander's Empire
 - The Death of Alexander the Great
 - Hellenistic Civilization
- Government
 - Absolute Monarchy
 - Successors of Alexander the Great
- War and Warfare
 - The Wars and Conquests of Alexander the Great

Week Twenty-Eight Dynamic Interaction, Historiography

- Religion
 - Greek Gods
 - Greek Mythology
- Fine Arts
 - Alexander the Great and the Spread of Greek Culture
- Philosophy
 - Diogenes
- Historiography and Analysis
 - Read Ch. 3 (section two only) of Burrow's A History of Histories. Provide a written response including biographical information, main points, and quotes of interest.
- Dynamic Interaction
 - Investigate Alexander the Great online. Note material of interest in your century book and in summary or list form.

© 2014

© 2014